

Job Description

Job Title	Change Analyst
-----------	----------------

POSITION SUMMARY

The Change Analyst position reports to the OB Change Management Practice Manager in the Optus Business division of Optus Singtel.

This position will participate in the delivery of change management across several enterprise wide Tier 1 & 2 AOP initiatives. The individual will be part of a larger change team. They will be required to assist with the change deliverables, understand and handle resistance to change, to assist to engage cross-functional, diverse stakeholders, to assist to build a common vision of the initiative deliverables. Assist with implementing a transformation project also requires the inherent ability to communicate clearly and engage with diverse stakeholders to ensure engagement, cut through, and achieve maximum adoption including the realization of business objectives.

Key deliverables associated with the role are:

- Assist with specific tasks to deliver Change Management on key Optus projects

This is a critical role dedicated to the realisation of the business objectives. The successful candidate will need to be able to manage multiple stakeholders, Change Managers and Business Leads with competing demands and a diverse and demanding project pipeline. To be successful in the role, the incumbent will need to move seamlessly from task to task and be highly proactive, resilient and flexible, have good attention to detail and communicate well.

KEY ACCOUNTABILITIES / KPIs

Key result areas	Required outputs/KPIs
Change Execution	- Follow the Optus Change Management Methodology - Assist with Change Management on key Optus projects, focusing on but not limited to: Change Impact Assessments, Capability planning and activities and assistance with the execution of the change plan. Key activities include but are not limited to: - Setup and continual updates of Intranet/Espresso sites - Gather testimonials and setup feedback surveys - Conduct / assist with conducting impact assessments - Assist in gathering SME SAP Enable Now content - Engage Org Capability to set up training invitations/locations etc.. - Prepare any pre-training assessments - Book in all sessions via HR Learning as required by project & co-ordinate all attendance - Schedule training review sessions with core team - Assist with execution of Hypercare period post training - Share MOM's and track them - Working with the Change manager and project team to support the single view of change and ensure change impacts / activity align with other programs.

Job Description

Stakeholder Management	• Establish and maintain effective partnerships with project and business stakeholders • Operate with integrity and easily build trust with all stakeholders • Establish shared goals
------------------------	---

MAJOR CHALLENGES / TYPICAL PROBLEMS ENCOUNTERED

• Assisting with the execution of Change Management against competing business priorities.
• Balancing workload from multiple projects
• Maintaining change discipline and effective execution in a fast paced and dynamic competitive marketing / environment.
• Establishing and maintaining effective relationships with a range of business people, including senior management.
• Obtaining time and information from teams and people who don't necessarily prioritise change management requirements
• Connecting with people in an environment where people are time poor
• Working outside of standard work hours when projects demand this

QUALIFICATIONS / EXPERIENCE / KNOWLEDGE REQUIRED

Essential / must have	Desirable / preferable
Education level, knowledge and work/industry experience
2 years Project and/or change related roles in large enterprise settings and dealing with complex change.	Experience in working with and supporting a large and dynamic organization.
Experience and knowledge of change management principles and methodologies (example: Prosci certification)	Knowledge of the Optus organization – systems, products and processes.
Proven ability to prioritise and manage a substantial workload.	Experience in the telecommunications and/or information technology industries.
Good attention to detail	Prosci certification
Behavioral (e.g. negotiation skills, presentation skills)
Communicate clearly and persuasively.
Problem solving and analytical ability
Collaborative style with ability to organise and facilitate cross functional teams.
Self-directing and flexibility to adjust to changes in priorities and business directions.
Highly motivated with strong initiative. Proactive and forward thinking.
Demonstrates attitude of personal renewal applying feedback and learnings from development opportunities to grow personally and professionally.
Considered, balanced and mature judgment.	