

Job Description

Job Title: MO Business Analyst

Department (Business Line): Fareast Programme

Location: Singapore

Notice Period: 4 Weeks

Duration of assignment:- 6 Months

Job Title of Local reporting manager: Fareast release 6 release manager

Is this a Global / Regional or Singapore role: Singapore

Position Details:

Department purpose/objectives:- The Fareast Programme team is responsible for the delivery of a large, multi phase, project for a large Asian Asset Manager.

Purpose of the position:- The purpose of the role is to act as a business analyst for a release focused on delivering a client reporting service to client

Key Responsibilities:

- Support the release manager on gathering, defining, agreeing and documenting requirements to ensure traceability and robust project control
- Working with relevant teams to ensure that the data required to produce the client reporting, exists in our databases, or is acquired where necessary.
- Document solution to be provided, communication of same to client, and work with the release manager to test and deliver the required solution
- Where needed, provide accurate status tracking and reporting, Issue Management (including workshops when required), Managing actions, Dependency Management, chairing/attending Governance meetings and when required escalation to Senior Management.
- Support the generation, and validation of regular internal and client facing updates on progress.
- Maintain all project documentation to required internal standards.
- Acting as an expert and Champion in terms of promoting and abiding by our project management approach, principles and methodology.
- Where required, completing all necessary processes documentation and procedures to promote projects into the production environment, including the management of deployment dates, plans, sign-offs, migration planning, training plans and contingency / back-out plans.
- Supporting the executing associated Change Management tasks related to the portfolio, sub portfolio of projects or change initiatives.
- Supporting our client and project integrated change control process. This may also mean dealing directly with our client in a professional manner.
- Where required be a subject matter expert for project team members and the ability to perform varying levels of business analysis when required to do so
- Where appropriate working with IT in managing vendors and or clients
- Collation of materials, chairing and minuting the project documents and internal / external meetings. Using the appropriate brainstorming, facilitation techniques and business analysis tools and techniques to ensure requirements meet the business need.
- Participation and representation of BNP Paribas Securities Services at regular client update meetings
- Dealing with all levels of the organisation from developers to senior sponsors
- Effective project risk management

- Work with teams across multiple locations (including but not limited to London, Glasgow, Paris and Chennai)

Key internal stakeholders:

- The Business (Local and Global Production Teams)
- Local and Global IT / IT Development Teams
- Sponsors and Senior Management
- IT Development and Support Teams in London, Paris and Chennai
- Product and Strategic Operating Model (SOM) Team
- IT Service Delivery Teams in London and Chennai
- PMO Team
- Head of Operations (key stakeholder)
- Global Head of Middle Office (key stakeholder)
- Heads of UK IT and Engineering Teams
- Other internal Business Areas

Key external key stakeholders:

- The client
- Vendor liaison (including but not limited to FIS, XSP, Intellimatch, Tradeflow, brokers and other third parties).

Skills and Experience required

Competencies required for the role:

Essential:

- Delivery focussed Business Analyst
- Experience of our business more specifically Middle Office Fund Administration / Accounting Operations such as Asset Servicing (Income & Corporate Actions), Transactions Management (Treasury, Trade, Derivatives and Cash Management), Reconciliations and Reporting.
- Client facing experience (preferred)
- Experience with delivery of client reporting services for an asset manager (preferred)
- Ability to deal with all levels of the organisation from developers to senior sponsors
- Collaborative approach and good interpersonal skills
- Expert in delivering business analysis tools and techniques
- Ability to drive a solution/s through to completion
- Experience in delivering analysis through business process modelling, requirements gathering, traceability, testing and support business control management (preferred)
- Experience managing vendors, particularly when dealing with testing phases of projects (preferred)
- Team player
- Strong team player and where required manage other BA's
- Good interpersonal skills

Qualifications required for the role:

Essential:

- College degree

Technical Experience

Required:

- Strong Business Analysis skills
- Strong interpersonal and people skills
- Proven track record for project support and delivery
- Financial industry experience preferably Middle Office Operations
- Strong negotiating skills

- Client facing experience
- Good knowledge of the development lifecycle
- Experience managing vendors and testing lifecycles

Desired:

- Experience of vendor packages used within BNP Paribas (such as Vermillion, HiPort)
- Experience of vendor packages used within BNP Paribas (such as Hiportfolio, XSP)
- Business analysis skills, tools and techniques
- Experience of Excel macro automation, writing code to visual basic and effective BPM