

Area Sales Manager

Division : Sales

Job Summary :

Manage sales activities to ensure the established strategic plans are effectively carried out to ensure maximum customer's satisfaction and sale performance to achieved target sales volume. Develop activities to ensure all network supports are developed ,expanded and effectively managed in order to achieve targeted business growth according to the set plan.

Responsibilities :

- Give the direction and/or MMTh's policy to achieve the sales target.
- Manage Area Manager & Handle dealers, communicating with them and ensuring a good working relationship align with company policy & directions.
- Development/improvement operations performance, sales achievement, productivity & efficiency.
- Collect analysis and manage information regarding markets, sales and sales related materials to make counter measure to achieve sales target
- Monitors and controls the effective implement of sales promotion activities.
- Visit all dealers in order to strengthen relationship, exchange necessary information and giv proper advice relating to sales and promotion aspects.
- Implement and follow up Sales Process Management to improve dealer operation in order to enhance sales effectively and follow up and improve Dealer Sale Standard.

Qualifications :

- Male or Female, 30-35 years old, Automotive experienced will be an advantage.
- Bachelor degree or Master degree in any pertinent fields.
- Good computer skills in MS office especially Excel, Power Point. Able to make a report, Flow chart and presentation
- Good command in writing, reading, speaking and comprehension in English.
- Positive attitude, Service mind, Honest and Reliable, Good co-ordination personality, Creative thinking.
- Good co-ordination in team work, Team leader skill is advantage.
- Problem solving skill, good analytical skill, business mind, profit P/L oriented, ROI and knowledge in budget management view.
- Able to travel in up-country area.

Area After Sales Manager

Division : Dealer Operation Support

Responsibilities :

- Act as the company window person to make business deals with dealers by engaging in all kinds of communication, coordination in connection with the fore mentioned service operation.
- Provide business coaching over dealer service operation to achieve “Value Chain Concept” as the goals of the company.
- Assist in the implementation, promotion and administration of company direction such as Customer Satisfaction (CSI) Service Standard, Diamond Concept, Warranty, Master level training, Etc.
- Collect, analyze and summarize the result of service and parts operation then feedback to dealer owner and Service Mgr.
- Visit to cultivate good relationship with dealers by providing sufficient date, information to build strong dealer’s service operation.

Qualifications :

- Thai Nationality, Male or Female; Age 28-37 years.
- Bachelor’s Degree in Business Management, Economics, Engineering or related field
- Experience in After Sales, Marketing, in automobile industry is a plus.
- Having customer service attitude, sense of responsibility and self motivator.
- Business, analytical and financial skills.
- Good in communication, presentation and interpersonal skill.
- Good command of English and Computer literacy.
- Able to travel to Upcountry
- Candidates have to attach the picture in resume